SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

five (5) years.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1.	You must not commit another rederal, state or local crime.
2.	You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3.	You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
	☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4.	☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5.	You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6.	☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7.	☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12. If the probation officer determines based on your criminal record, personal history and characteristics, and the nature and circumstances of your offense, you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer, with prior approval of the Court, may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk...
- 13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, selease Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov .

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1. The defendant shall refrain from contacting the victim depicted in the image involved in the instant offense. This means that he shall not attempt to meet in person, communicate by letter, telephone, email, the Internet, or through a third party, without the permission of the Probation Department.
- 2. The defendant shall comply with any applicable state and/or federal sex offender registration requirements, as instructed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state offender registration agency in the state where he resides, works, or is a student.
- 3. The defendant shall cooperate with the U.S. Probation Office's Computer and Internet Management/Monitoring ("CIMP") program. Cooperation shall include, but not be limited to, identifying computer systems (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), Internet-capable devices, and/or any electronic media capable of data storage the defendant has access to, allowing an initial examination of the device(s), and installation of monitoring software/hardware on the device(s), at the defendant's expense. The monitoring software/hardware is authorized to capture and analyze all data processed by and/or contained on the device, including the geolocation of the device. The defendant must provide the Probation Office advance notification of planned use or purchase of any device(s). The defendant shall not use any device(s) without approval until compatibility with current monitoring software/hardware is determined and installation of monitoring software/hardware is completed. The Probation Office may access the device and/or data captured by the monitoring software/hardware at any time with or without suspicion that the defendant has violated the conditions of supervision. The defendant may be limited to possessing only one personal Internet-capable device, to facilitate the Probation Office's ability to effectively manage and monitor the device. The defendant shall also permit seizure and removal of computer systems, Internet-capable devices, and any electronic media capable of data storage for further analysis by law enforcement or the Probation Office based upon reasonable suspicion that a violation of a condition of supervision or unlawful conduct by the defendant has or is about to occur. Failure to comply with the monitoring, seizure and/or search of any computer systems, Internet-capable devices, and any electronic media capable of data storage may result in adverse action such as sanctions and/or revocation. The defendant shall inform all parties that access a monitored device, that the device is subject to search and monitoring. The only exception to monitoring by the Probation Department will be of attorney/client privileged communications, as determined by the name of the individual with whom defendant is communicating.
